Greetings from Holland!

I've come over on a short visit to see a cousin who is living here in Amsterdam in a charming little house boat which has all the conveniences of a N.Y. apartment. I've also done some sailing and have eaten the famous Dutch eels, cheeses and chocolates. This is the first time I've been to the continent but will return this summer after finishing up at Wegbridge.

I've heard no news about the Lederbergs for some time. I presume you are busy as usual. Greetings to all the lab. Lois
