Dear Dr. Lederberg,

I have been very sorry that I have mislaid your last letter, received several months ago. I have searched it in vain until I found it, by chance, to-day among some other papers.

I thank you for your two reprints and for the retained duplicates of my publications, and I enclose a copy of one of the wanted papers. The paper in Acta Path. 20, 791 is an abstract from a meeting of which I have no reprints.

Yours sincerely

Marchen Kristensen
