HOTELL & RESTAURANT A.-B.

STOCKHOLM den 7/13/1947
BRUNKEBERGSTORG 13—15

Dear Tracy,

I spoke with Waddington, while in England, and he said he will be glad to take Beale after he comes to Indiana. A letter to this effect went to you & Beale from Waddington.

Now, my feeling is that Beale may be hesitant to accept the offer and to take a Rockefeller fellowship, but I strongly feel that he should, and on my part I am not inclined to pay his salary if he can get it elsewhere, simply in order to preserve his freedom of decision as to his future for another year.

I think, also, it would be good for us if he went back to Waddington's place after leaving Indiana.

I am ~~not~~ writing Beale along the same lines.

The congress is rather good, although the Casperson group is really a let down, not for ability, but for ideas. My paper went very well, and is getting lots of newspaper publicity.

We had a grand time in England, and shall leave for Copenhagen next Friday.

Best regards to you all, from Zella and myself.

Lucia
