Dear Josh, Oct 24, 1956

I couldn't find my only copy of the deplicon story. Just today I remembered loaning it to Ed Lennox, who is mailing it to me today. I'll forward it to you tomorrow. Please return when through.

We are suddenly having trouble growing bacteria on lactate, although they grow fine enough on glucose. Can't wait to work with both again.

Aaron