THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
MADISON 6, WISCONSIN

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

September 23, 1955

Professor Joshua Lederberg
202 Genetics Building

Dear Professor Lederberg:

The Committee on All-University Lectures is glad to join the Departments of Genetics, Zoology, Botany and Plant Pathology in the sponsorship of a lecture by Dr. Kimball C. Atwood. The Committee agreed to furnish the usual publicity and $100 for honorarium and expenses. Dr. Atwood's check will be available in Mr. Luberg's office, 108 Bascom Hall, on the day of the lecture.

175

Enclosed are two blanks. One is for attendance and should be filled out immediately after the lecture and mailed to Mr. Luberg's office. The other should be filled out at least three weeks before the lecture and mailed also to Mr. Luberg's office.

It is our understanding that all other arrangements will be made by the Departments of Genetics, Zoology, Botany and Plant Pathology.

Sincerely,

Leon D. Epstein, Chairman
Committee on All-University
Lectures
