Letters from W. O.
to Dr. G. Adami.

Oxford.

Jan. 30/17.

Dear Adami,

So glad to have your letter of the 19th today. How glad you must be to have got out in time. Poor dear! I think of her as the sweet little girl I knew with Maggie Francis. I have been expecting to hear of your arrival in England but at "86" the other day I was told of your transfer temporarily to Ottawa. All are so glad that Jones is back and the arrangement seems to be that Foster goes in with Jones as a general inspector, this is the rumour. Perley tells me that Bruce is raging with me. My only points were the irregularity in the apt. and the injustice to Jones. I hope things will quiet down as it is bad for the service to have these discussions Of course Hughes must be furious, it was a case of Hamans gallows. I have been laid up with a sharp attack of Bronchitis—all right again now but I am taking it easy in these cold days.

Revere keeps well—has had 3 months in the Ancre—the battery in continuous action. We heard today that they had gone to rest—billets. Love to the children. Let us know when you come over.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
