KRAPER

I don't know whether you people are in the country or not, but I'm willing to risk 20 Dutch cents on it. This is just you going to stay in Madison. Note the modern sculpture in this theater in the new (10 yr. old) town of Emmeloord. We stopped here Sunday on a 2-day trip to see the Zuiderzee dyke & the new polders created on a vast scale in it. Simply incredible! "God made the rest of the world, but the Dutch made Holland" is a very apt quotation.
