Dear Lynn –

It was such a shock – and, to us, surprise – to read about Kenneth's death in this morning's paper. We have been visiting for a few weeks, and I had hoped we might find time to renew a connection which has been all too fallow the last few years. We had no idea that Kenneth was so ill at this time... and then saw the news report.

I am so sorry. Besides your loss, mine is a small one; but I will miss him. No one was better able to jog my engrooved – thinking with a question that would make one think in far more general terms – and after I thought I had already exercised all the tricks he had taught me.

Marguerite joins me in regret and sympathy,

Yours,

Joshua.
