Gentlemen:

Would you be kind enough to examine the enclosed shutter, and estimate the cost of repair. It is taken from a "Laurelflex" brand, reflex camera, manufactured by the Tokyo Optical Company. If your repair cost is less than $10 for a durable job, please proceed without further notification.

If, in your judgment, repair would be uneconomical, can you quote me on a replacement shutter, new or used, that would fit in place of this one? You will probably ask me to send the entire camera in that case, which I can do.

Please do not ship COD. I will guarantee all costs, and will remit in advance if requested.

I enclose a return postcard for your convenience. Please address per typewritten letterhead.

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
