Personal Memo from JOSHUA LEDERBERG

John Swann

SEP 16 1985

Thank you for the reprint on
AL Tatum

I was interested in the small light it throws on Ed's family-professional background.

ALT's financial affairs are of interest in their own light as a contrast or precedent to contemporary univ.-ind. relationships.

A historiographic note: ALT's probated will could give you some idea of (or bounds to) any personal financial gain he may have "pocketed" vs. used for research.

Are there no surviving* octagenarian pharmacologists to tell you about finances of research in the dept. 40 years ago?

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
