Memo/Reply From
JOSHUA LEDERBERG

TO: Edith Kerr

are probably not a progress R.U. We are really a research institute, with 200 faculty and 150 students (Ph D candidates.) But I certainly do want to keep the lines open. June Goodfield, whom you should know, is affiliated here; and I lunch occasionally with Dick Sennett at NYU Inst. Humanities.

Unless this puts you off, I would be delighted to discuss our mutual interests in more detail. If you have time for a free lunch, please call I.

Sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
