I am sorry the capacity doesn't always match the intention! And I certainly wished to do only well by you

However, my secretary still has not located any file with enough detail to be useful in refreshing my memory.

We are still looking.

Meanwhile I will send out a hand-written note today. In any case your principal influence will have to be more proximate to your recent experience and immediate responsibilities -- so of course you must bolster your background with others.

I hope this still works out for you!

Best wishes.

Joshua

P. S.

It would assure me for the future (and save time!) if you could send me an updated cv and bibliography (and any other account of yourself that could help me help you.

Yours

Joshua
