Institutionalizing racism.

Dear Prof Bernitz –

I enjoyed your Aug. 2 WSJ and do look forward to your book.

Almost 30 years ago I was in great despair that one evil was being countered by another. Perhaps there will be a new look, or will the pendulum swing too far once again?

For your new book, to which I look forward, I send you some arguments that still have barely been voiced recently.

Yours sincerely,

John Lederberg
