Friday, June 8th

Dear Josh-

I trust all's well with you and Neuropsa, and that you're not working too hard.

Whether or not the latter's true, perhaps you could arrange to come down to the city next Tuesday. Taylor Hinton is coming through on his way to a new job at Amherst and I'm planning a party next Tuesday night, the 18th. Please drop in, if you're in New York, any time after 8:30 at 325 W. 108th Street.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Lucena
