Dear Joshua and Esther: This will acknowledge your pre-Stockholm letter + the linear reprint + what you proposed to say to the court in Stockholm. I doubt if I could be as generous to a King as you have been. When I was a little fellow we had a mess of soldiers whose leader was a King. In the mock battles I used to knock off the King first - then his officers. These toys came from Germany - the King being the Kaiser. The rabble were Russian and French soldiers. ¶ Any problems pertaining to carbo-hydrate chemistry should not be readily solved with your close proximity to Clint Ballon. About 2 years ago Stanford wanted to get Clint but due to the race prejudice against Orientals they decided to stay at Berkeley. ¶ You will note that I respected the privacy of your
