Dear Josh:

You wrote me Dec. 20 re Ethelyn Lively. Altho at this time I have a good technician, her plans are a bit uncertain for the future. I shall therefore drop E.L. a line and ask her plans, altho at this moment I have nothing to offer.

If I recall correctly, you mentioned that you had sent me a copy of your Physiological Reviews article. If so, it did not reach me. Please put me on your list ~~for~~ of "most appreciative" receivers of same whenever it becomes available.

It was very nice to see you Esther + Seymour on New Years. I'm sorry we couldn't prolong the visit... The Cavalli's finally left N.Y. last Friday after a great send off party - including Luria who was here for Polio Symposium.

We look forward now to a lull in social activities so we can do a little work - and look forward to your visit as the next break in our routine - by then a most welcome break.

Best regards,

Ruth
