Dear Dr. Lederberg:

The nicest gift I received this Christmas was time -- time to just read for pleasure during a vacation. So it was I got to your "Notes from the Ivory Tower" (So. Calif. Law Review) which you sent me last May and which has been on my desk since then. 'Tis two papers in one --- the footnotes are as valuable as the text -- and I enjoyed both.

The Appendix with a bill of particulars against technology is very good to have. It deserves wider circulation.

Do keep me on your mailing list.

Happy new year!

Sincerely,

Myron Tribus
