Law + Society ...

Dear Alex –

I enjoyed our meeting last night, and want to thank you for bringing me into the group.

Do you see "Law + Society Review"?

I used to subscribe to it, but have not seen it in some years; it should be a good source of ideas on people and themes for our group. It is not in RU library.

Yours,

Joshua.

My reference to Aristophanes' "The Wasps" was an aside to Bob Pollack. We shared that reading in "freshman" Humanities at Columbia College. Plus ça change...
