Larry.

"The boss is last to know"
department.

We have a live-in baby-sitter, prospective graduate student who pointed out to me that T/C clinical psych.

in its publications actively discouraged any informal consultation.

She contrasts this with Rutgers and many other places.

She is a very bright girl (Stanford B.S.)

and I take her comment very seriously.

So — you ought to know.

(It would not be hard to enlist [i.e. hire] a couple of students to receive these shock waves of applicants that must be deterred at all costs.)
