7, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

July 20th. 1905

Dear Jacobs

It might be well to catch Blonde early. I think his address is the Hotel Cecil, tho. I think from what he said that he was leaving soon for Germany He is very much in earnest. It would be a pity to lose a second place – I impressed that point upon him. The Catonsville lot – 12–20 acres would be ideal for early cares. If he gave the $25000 and you got. Garrett's gift as well as splendid start could be made. We have been in Cambridge with the all bulls. Things are slackening a bit - there have been so many 'functions' in hand that we shall be glad for rest. I go to the B.M.A. next week at Leicester so glad to hear that the baths are doing you both good.

Thanks for the Rabelaisian Geography. which is full of most interested matter. Lefranc has fished out all sorts of valuable & unknown circumstances connected with his life fore & his facts.

Sincerely yours

Wm Osler