Nov 11 –

Dear Mary –

I had a nice birthday – the book on L'Greco came the very day & I got two lovely Brian Cliff Roses & spent the evening reading the book & enjoying the roses – It's fine – She gives a wonderful picture of the Spanish Inquisition – I think does not portray L'Greco as quite as deeply religious – as his pictures indicate.

Saturday afternoon I went to see the pictures of a modern Jewish Italian artist who died recently - I copied the name & learn it at home for I want you to ask Miss Strickfield about him - His pictures have an extraordinary ~~en~~ lengthening of the neck - & I thot them very strange but the next day I had the most extraordinary clear visual memory of them — It was interesting — The necks & noses were all too long —

Dr. White is going to dinner & we are going to see one of the new plays —

I called up Mrs Sheldon yesterday to thank her for some concert tickets. She has just come back from a Southern trip & said that she is unusually well — quite rested up — She says that Mr Gordon Strong's place is a dream of feeling — especially Mrs Denison's house. He is building a wonderful
