Reprints chargeable to grants from the Fund

For the guidance of administrators of grants made by The Jane Coffin Childs Memorial Fund for Medical Research the following information relative to reprints of articles is furnished:

- (a) 125 reprints (with covers) reporting results of investigations aided by a grant from the Fund may be charged to the grant, as other expenses are charged.
- (b) Of these reprints - 100 copies will be for the use and distribution of the author or authors and 25 copies represent those which are to be sent to the Fund for binding in its Collected Papers.
- (c) Unusual costs of publication of papers resulting from an investigation supported by a grant from the Fund may be met by special arrangements made in advance with the Fund.
- (d) Acknowledgement of aid from The Jane Coffin Childs Memorial Fund for Medical Research should be given only on papers which derive from research supported wholly or in part by a grant from the Fund.
