Dear Josh:

Sorry about your non-visit. That makes it all the more imperative that some other way may be found for us all to get together. Any prospect of you—with Marguerite and David if possible—coming east, and visiting us in our new Princeton establishment? Evy and I may be in California in late fall and if we are we will check with you about the possibility of getting together. *

Do you know where I can reach Cavalli-Sforza (about some pygmy studies we once considered doing, to be exact)? I heard he is in Europe for the summer and then I heard through several grapevines that he may be coming to Rockefeller University in the fall. x

Our very best to Marguerite, you and David from both of us.

Cordially,

Herman A. Witkin
