Dear Josh:

One other item we might have used are Ed Tatum's Harry Blinks. He was a for "Blink" that C.N. Ingber brought to Stanford ("The atom: Brooks, Whittaker + Turin"). Blinks has a phenomenal memory - if you still need to check on some things you might want to contact him at Hopkins. He may recall things we don't. He knew Ed and Tom and invited him to teach at UIUC.

Her little card have one

No files on Ed Tatum in the attic
