Proposed for a joint paper on:

a critical look at what happens to life expectancy and age distribution in U.S. where (not if) specific diseases conditions like atherosclerosis, some cancer, ... are mitigated, all and when infant mortality etc. are controlled to best case now achieved in any stratum.

What literature do you have on that now?

Josh.

he has a 1975 paper on Kuplitz