Dear Josh,

This can be put down as a year in which the Nobel Committee measured excellence — and how right they were! But if you don't slow down a bit you'll drive me old before my time. Some fatherly advice — don't become an administrator. And then, congratulations of the warmest kind!

Sincerely,

Francis & Betty