Doctor J. Lederberg, Head
Department of Genetics
Stanford University, Medical School
Palo Alto, California

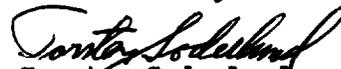

Dear Doctor Lederberg:

Thank you for the courtesies extended towards the writer while visiting your laboratory yesterday and also for the consideration you gave us, in asking us whether it would be possible to help you design a new type, liquid filled rotor.

The undersigned will forward the information to the Home Office in Connecticut, and I feel certain, that they will give it all their attention and will notify you as to their interest.

Sincerely yours,

IVAN SORVALL, INC.
