Dear Murray,

Leaves the crowded days that intervene between now and the 19th of the month to write this note of birthday greeting, the latter timed by the postmark and arrival. Myself up a quick half hour this morning—

This afternoon—traveling on. I am disappointed to hear that you coned not enjoy it with me—but as I put on that grand harp, I thought of you listening to the pure music in your comfortable, cool apartment and feel happy that you at least had escaped
The work was gumps of a long trip back from.

And you shall have other opportunities to hear the great He's come walking his orchestra.

which you know you could not otherwise have.
But it would make them very happy if you would get past that thing.

Then, if all goes well I'm not going to the college this week and perhaps I can get away Saturday. This was in a free one I'm got to make a speech
before the Air Forces of Surgeons at the Tobacco on Friday. We have mapped out a heavy schedule of experiments — by the way you'll be pleased to know that the

Last Friday, I had dinner at Dr. Holmes' residence in honor of Dr. Lashley. I took the liberty of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, 66th Street and York Avenue, New York.

The College prize, written and highly complimented, was a splendid character, he is so simple, modest, so brilliant in accomplishment.

Looking forward to being with you—my days are busy ones—sometimes happy, sometimes disappointed—that the life of friends, but come what may, my thoughts are always of you. May your courage and faith continue to bless you. A very happy and happy birthday to you. God bless and keep you.

With all my love,
