

LANGLEY, J.N. On the reaction of cells and of nerve-endings to certain poisons, chiefly as regards the reaction of striated muscle to nicotine and to curari. Journal of Physiology (London) 33:374-413, 1905.

SMITH, D.E. Diagnostic, treatment and aftercare approaches to cocaine abuse.

SMITH, D.I. Evaluation of a residential AA programme for women. Alcohol and

SMITH, T.E. Drug Education with Adolescent Marijuana Abusers. Doctoral dissertation,

STANTON, M.D. Family treatment of drug problems: A review. In: Shapiro, D.H.,
Walsh, R.N. (eds.) Meditation: Classic and Contemporary Perspectives. New York:
Aldine, 1978, pp. 105-120.

STANTON, M.D. The client as a family member: Aspects of continuing treatment. In:

STANTON, M.D., TODD, T.C., STEIER. Structural family therapy with drug addicts.
In: Kaufman, E., Kaufman, P. (eds.) Family Therapy of Drug and Alcohol Abuse.

STEAD, P., VIDERS, J. A "SHARP" approach to treating alcoholism. Social Work

